COURSE STRUCTURE

MODULE 1: GREETINGS AND YOUR WORLD (1 ECTS)

This module allows the students attending to get to know each other. The context of greetings and introductions in different settings allows students to do this in English in a meaningful way even with quite basic language.

MODULE 2: MY LIFE, FAMILY AND FRIENDS (1 ECTS)

This module aims at extending the range of personal information that students can give. The unit introduces expressing the possessive with vocabulary, related to the family. Students practise with talking about the present within the context of hobbies, likes and dislikes. Food and drink are also introduced to serve as a context for further insights in the construction of the plural forms.

MODULE 3: OUT AND ABOUT (1 ECTS)

This module aims at introducing and providing practice in describing places within the context of being out and about during one's free time. This unit extends question formation and the demonstratives. It introduces vocabulary directly related to directions and distance. Useful adjectives and their opposites are also introduced.

MODULE 4: AT WORK AND AT HOME (1 ECTS)

The theme of this unit takes a look at life at work and at home. The difference between formal and informal language are presented within the contexts of work and at home with family and friends. Students will analyse the differences and compare to their own languages these allowing a focus on comparatives.

MODULE 5: IT'S TIME TO GO - RECAP (1 ECTS)

This module serves as an overview of the previous four units focussing mainly on recycling and recalling the language presented and practised throughout the course. The content presented is intended to facilitate basic communication and interaction within the student's current real-life context to further increase confidence in the basic use of the language once the learner leaves the classroom. Reflection will be carried out with particular focus being placed on the way forward to further their learning after the course.
